CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Two world's records were smashed and two other marks were equalled in a hectic slugfest which Chicago won from Philadelphia Friday, 26 to 29. The total runs scored by both clubs—forty-nine—is the highest score in a game of all time, according to records available here. The major league mark of 43 runs was made during a game between Chicago and Louisville on June 29, 1897. A previous record was established in the old Players' league, Brooklyn and Buffalo having scored 44 runs during their game July 12, 1890. Both are classified as major league records, with the former being recognized as the record of modern baseball. The greatest score since 1900 was made in the Boston-Philadelphia game of May 2, 1901, when a total of 35 runs was scored.

The record for the most hits by both teams since 1900 in one game was also shattered, a total of 51 hits being made. Philadelphia out-hit Chicago, 26 to 23.

Outfielder Callaghan of the Chicago club equalled the world's record for the number of times to face a pitcher in one inning. He came up three times during the fourth-inning batting rally of the Cubs and smashed out two hits and struck out once. This record is shared by T. Burns, Fred Pfeffer, P. Goldsmith and Billy Sunday, who faced the pitcher three times each in the seventh inning of a game between Chicago and Detroit on September 3, 1883.

By scoring 14 runs in one inning the Cubs tied the modern major league record made by the New York Americans against Washington on July 6, 1920. They also came within four runs of tying the world's mark of eighteen made in the Detroit-Chicago game of September 6, 1885.

The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 23 26 4
Chicago 26 25 4

The batteries: Weinert, Rinz and Henline, Osborn, Morris, Eubank, Stueland, Kauffman and Hartnett and O'Farrell.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—After holding a three-run lead seven innings, all markers being made on home runs, St. Louis today lost the first game of the series with New York, 4 to 3. An error by Hornsby in the eighth prevented a possible double play and assisted the champions materially in winning the contest.

The locals' home runs were made by Hornsby, Mann and Ainsmith. It was Hornsby's 20th circuit drive of the season.

The score: R. H. E.
New York 4 12 1
St. Louis 3 9 3

Batteries: Nehf and Smith; Pettica, Haines and Ainsmith.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—Three home runs by Red Russell failed to prevent Pittsburgh from dropping a double-header to Brooklyn here today. The scores were 8 to 7 and 8 to 6.

In the ninth inning of the first contest, Tierney fanned for the third out with the tying run on second base. Russell struck out with one on in the ninth inning of the second game.

First game: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 7 10 2
Pittsburgh 8 14 0

Batteries: Decatur, Smith, Grimes and Miller; Carlson, Adams and Schmidt.

Second game: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 8 14 0
Pittsburgh 6 11 1

Batteries: Cadore and Debery; Hamilton, Yellowstone, Glanzor and Gooch.

EVIDENCE ON THE 'MAJOR'S' TRANSPORTATION BACK HOME

RUTH MAY YET TAKE HIT TITLE

Babe's Prediction Seems
Nearer as He Keeps Up
Hot Pace

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Way back when his home run total was expressed in only a single figure—and when suspension fines and bleacher riots were more of a daily occurrence than a four base hit—Babe Ruth said the 1922 season would end with him the champion home run hitter of the major leagues.

In those days, back in May, Babe and Mrs. Ruth seemed to be about the only people in the United States confident of Ruth's comeback. Today Ruth's challenge to Ken Williams of St. Louis, whose home run hitting at the start of the season was a sensation, and Tillie Walker of the Athletics, has begun to sound like the real thing.

Ruth, with the close of the season a little more than a month away, has 26 homers to his credit, Williams 32 and Walker 30. The bambino smashed out four this week, while the best Williams could do was a pair. Walker, however, connected with three. Ruth, if he continues his present pace, will make good his prediction, in the judgment of baseball critics.

HAUSE FORGES AHEAD.
The race in the American league for batting honors continues to be a merry one with the veterans battling to overcome George Sisler, of St. Louis, who is showing the way with an average of .415. Ty Cobb, pilot of the Tigers, is trailing Sisler with .400, and there is Speaker, leader of the Indians, next with .379. The remarkable slugging of Harry Heilmann, of Detroit, the past week had placed him among the first four with an average of .353. The averages include Wednesday's contests.

Haise, Connie Mack's first baseman, although he had played in only 75 games, made a wonderful showing during the past week. From a position down twentieth in the list Haise has boosted his average from .311 to .321 by making 17 hits in the last eight games at Detroit.

Sisler added three more bases to his string of the features and continues to set the pace for the base stealers, his closest rival being Williams, who has 32.

HORNBSBY GOES HIGHER.
Smashing out 13 hits in his last five games, Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, succeeded in widening the gap to 19 points that separates him from his rivals in the scramble for the batting honors of the National league as compared to 11 a week ago. Hornsby is he sustains his present pace, will be in no apparent danger of being nosed out of the league batting championship, and he apparently has shown a liking for left hand pitching, batted his way into fifth place in the list of leaders by connecting safely eight times in his last four games. Miller's performance, with the exception of Hornsby, was the outstanding feature of the week.

Max Carey of Pittsburgh continues to be the champion of the league in base stealing, with a total of 35. Other leading batters for 30 or more games: Hollocher, Chicago, 354; Miller, 323; Carey, Pittsburgh, 330; Daubert, Cincinnati, 341; Walker, Philadelphia, 340; Johnston, Brooklyn, 337; Banrott, New York, 337.

BOY CHESS MARVEL TO PLAY CHAMPIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Samuel Reshevsky, 10-year-old Polish chess player, will compete with nine established adult players in the ninth American national chess tournament beginning October 7, at Hotel McAlpin. Tournament officials announced. The boy is to be the beneficiary of the tournament.

The adult players will include Frank J. Marshall, champion of the United States; D. J. Rios, champion of France; Edwards Lasker, leader of the western states, and J. P. Crier, champion of the Pacific coast.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The New York and St. Louis Americans divided an exciting double header here Friday, the Browns winning the first game, 3 to 1, and New York taking the second, 6 to 5. Shocker pitched brilliantly in the opener and held New York to seven hits, three of them coming in the ninth, when Meusel drove in New York's only run, with two out. Hoyt pitched well for New York, but St. Louis bunched enough hits to win the game.

New York evened the day by winning behind Bush and Jones in the second game. Rush was hard pressed in both the eighth and ninth innings and Jones, who pitched only yesterday, was rushed to his rescue and just barely got through, two runners being on base when McManus flied to Witt.

First game: R. H. E.
St. Louis 3 10 1
New York 1 7 0

NEBRASKA EXCLUDES
DEMPSEY-BRENNAN GO

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 26.—Nebraska boxing promoters will not be allowed to stage a Jack Dempsey-Bill Brennan bout in this state, according to a statement issued by H. H. Antles, state secretary of the department of public welfare, which has general supervision of boxing in Nebraska.

The decision to prohibit the bout was made after Omaha fight promoters had asked permission to negotiate for the fight in that city this fall. Mr. Antles advised as his reasons for banning the proposed fight practically the same grounds that were advanced some days ago in Indiana, that the proposed match would be a prize fight, not a boxing match.

WOMAN CLIMBS TREE TO MAKE GOLF SHOT

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 26.—One of the most unusual golf shots on record was executed here Friday by Mrs. Helen Blackford. After an approach shot had landed in a bird's nest in a tree, Mrs. Blackford climbed the tree, took a stance among the limbs, and played a pitch shot onto the nearby green, from where she holed out in one putt, thus halving the hole.

SALT LAKE, Aug. 26.—The Seals turned the tables on the Bees yesterday at Bonneville park and romped away with the game with a score of 14 to 7. Home runs featured the game. Duffy Lewis whanged the ball over the fence twice and so did Bert Ellison and Jimmy O'Connell, Sam Agnew and Willie Kamm each slammed the ball over the fence.

A curious feature of the home run hitting yesterday was the fact that four of the five hits the Seals made off Elmer Reiger, relief pitcher, were home runs. That's something of a record; and there's another item that can go into the record book as unprecedented too. Which is that, in two different innings, the same successive batters hit the ball over. That happened with O'Connell and Ellison yesterday.

Walter Betts essayed the task of holding the Seals yesterday, but he was unequal to the occasion, and the visitors rapped him for large bunches of runs, making five in one inning. Betts pitched well, but he gave up plenty of hits off Oliver Mitchell, but they didn't get them at opportune times. Mitchell was in trouble in practically every inning, but when it came to a pinch, the Bees weren't there. As an indication of a lack of peppering the pellet in the pinches, it is only necessary to say that Salt Lake saw thirteen runners stranded; and as proof that the Seals made their hits, they scored four runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

HARRY SCHUMAN AND FRANK MURPHY DRAW

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 26.—Harry Schuman and Frankie Murphy, both of Denver, boxed a 12-round draw here Friday. The men are waterweights. In the semi-windup, eight rounds, Joe Berger, Chicago, won the decision over Kid Bernis, Rochester, N. Y. They are featherweights.

That the white man can live in tropical heat is shown by the 300 descendants of nine families of an English garrison, left forgotten on the island of Kisar, Dutch East Indies, from 1767 to 1910, all of whom are strong and healthy.

The SPORTLIGHT by Grantland Rice

(Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune, Inc.; Trade Mark Registered, U. S. Patent Office.)

THE SONG OF THE BASE HIT.
A whirl, a twist and a sudden crash,
And off I leap from the polished ash,
Off like the shot from a 10-inch gun.
A gray-white streak through the slanting sun
I soar away
Through a summer's day
Where the frantic fielders of the fray,
With derisive glance
And anguished glance,
Come rushing in to cop me.
But I glide between
With shocking swiftness
And there is none to stop me.

A shout, a roar and a noisy cheer,
And on my way through the atmosphere
I leap to the light as clenched hands grip
And wild eyes watch me fly or skip
Through open space
In headlong race,
As the joy of the ages lights each face
And pulses jump
With a vibrant thump.
As the sky reels from the roar,
And the rafters ring
With the song I sing
To the tune of the winning score.

Jock Hutchison prefers to play golf in a stiff white collar, but the average duffer is unwilling to take any such chance of having his neck split wide open in the act of starting in what is sometimes known as "the tragedy of the lifted bean."

An earlier date for the sale of major league players from one club to another no longer holds any interest for Mr. Frazee, who hasn't any more major league players to sell.

STARS AND TEMPERAMENT.

Due to an extravagant appear in certain quarters, the idea seems to persist that all leading baseball stars are so full of temperament they may blow wide open at any moment. This idea doesn't hold.

There is no temperament boiling out of the system of Rogers Hornsby, who happens to be an earnest hard-working ball player, contributing all he has to the game.

The same goes for George Sisler, Eddie Collins, Walter Johnson, Everett Scott, Tris Speaker and most of the others who exonerate their heft upon the seats of the mighty.

THE SUPPLY OF TALENT.

In the next few days your Uncle Samuel steps into one of the busiest international jamborees he ever has known.

The Walker cup for golf and the Davis cup for tennis are the two most noted competitions of two great sports, and they both take place within less than a fortnight.

International talent moves up and down. In 1914 it was all Great Britain's way. She took away the Davis cup and the Polo cup and had the greater supply of leading golfers.

But on this occasion we doubt that any one nation ever has sent any finer talent to the post than William Tilden, William M. Johnston, Vincent Richards, Norris Williams, "Chick" Evans, Bobby Jones, Francis Ouimet and the others named.

It so happens in both tennis and Davis cup that the United States is right next to "the other side" has been before.

There surely is no reason for any invading nation to brood over it if defeat should follow from this galaxy of stars.

In the same way the turns of competition so often come upon unexpected twists that no value can be acquired in taking anything for granted.

Said Mr. Frazee: "Ere they move up the date, What am I bid for the old home plate?"

There are four targets which the coming football season can shoot at this fall—

1. A stronger defensive team than W. and J. had at the finish.
2. A greater all-round outfit than Iowa and Notre Dame's.
3. A stronger running attack than Penn State most of the year.
4. Getting more out of material than Harvard did.

Johnny Dundee and Johnny Kilbane, the two featherweight champions, are referred to in a certain Shakespearean quotation: "When two men ride a horse, one must ride behind." They are entitled to take their pick of equine position, unless they wish to fight it out. Which isn't a bad idea, after all.

The Pittsburgh team, as a team, batted .414 for fourteen games. The bats they used should be saved and made into machine gun material for the next war.

FULTON PUT AWAY
BY MISKE IN FIRST

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 26.—Billy Miske, St. Paul heavyweight, knocked out Fred Fulton, of Minneapolis, in the first round of their scheduled 10-round bout here Friday.

Miske was the aggressor from the start and after slightly more than a minute of mixing, floored Fulton for a count of seven, using a right hook. When Fulton got to his feet, Miske charged him again and knocked him out with a left hook.

Miske weighed 188 pounds and Fulton 207.

It was Miske's fight from the first rush, and in the two minutes of fighting Fulton did not land one solid blow. Just before he was floored the first time, Fulton pecked Miske with his long left, but that was the closest he came to landing a blow.

Miske had an air of confidence when he went into the ring and this stuck to him. At infighting he had the advantage, and at the very outset annoyed Fulton with a stomach blow. A place the plunger always seeks to keep protected.

Though Fulton is rated Miske's superior as a boxer, he showed no inclination to stand up and box Miske. The latter constantly had the bigger man backing away or going into a clinch.

More than 17,500 persons, a record outdoor crowd for Minnesota, paid approximately $20,000, according to figures made public today, to see Miske stop Fulton.

Miske's manager has promises of several important bouts for the St. Paul battler and negotiations will be started for a meeting with Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion.

FORMER CADDY WINS
WESTERN PRO. TITLE

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., Aug. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Another former caddy pushed his way into the circle of golf champions Friday, when Mike Brady, Oakland Hills professional, finished the 72 holes of play in the western tournament over his home course with a score of 291, ten strokes better than his nearest competitors.

Twenty-five years ago, Brady, a little freckled-faced youngster, used to caddy at the Commonwealth Country club near Boston, Mass., and his ability to handle clubs when he was not chasing balls for "members" caused many of them to remark that "some day that kid's going to be a golfer."

Jock Hutchison, Chicago, former British champion, and Laurie Ayton of Chicago tied for second place in the tournament with cards totalling 301.

"Chick" Evans of
